Important Dates for JIE

- Application Period
- Course Interviews
- Release of Application Results
- Acceptance of Offer
- Appeal
- Report and registration at ITE college

Please refer to page 6 of your 2019 Intake Exercise Admission Booklet.

To note:

Sec 4N(A) students who are only interested in applying for the PFP should first progress to Sec 5N(A), even if you meet the PFP eligibility criteria based on your GCE N(A)-Level results in December 2018.

You may then apply for the PFP upon release of the GCE O-Level results in January 2019. If your application is successful, you will withdraw from Sec 5N(A) by the end of January 2019. You are required to attend Sec 5N(A) classes till the last Friday of January 2019.

To note:

Sec 4N(A) students who are only interested in applying for the DPP should do so once you receive their GCE N(A)-Level results in December 2018.

Should you accept a DPP offer, you will not need to return to school for Sec 5N(A) and start the 10-week DPP preparatory programme at ITE in January 2019.

To note:

Sec 4N(A) students who are interested in applying for both the PFP and DPP (sure not coming back for Sec 5) can ...

either apply for DPP once you receive your GCE N(A)-Level results in Dec 2018. Should you accept a DPP offer, you will graduate from school after Sec 4N(A), and start the 10-week DPP preparatory programme at ITE in Jan 2019. Upon the release of the GCE O-Level results in Jan, eligible students will be informed to collect the PFP eligibility form (Form P) to apply for the PFP. Should you accept a PFP offer, you will need to apply for withdrawal from the DPP immediately.

To note:

Sec 4N(A) students who are interested in applying for both the PFP and DPP (sure not coming back for Sec 5) can ...

or progress to Sec 5N(A) first. Upon release of the GCE O-Level results in Jan 2019, eligible students may then apply for PFP and DPP concurrently. If your application to either the PFP or DPP is successful, you will withdraw from Sec 5N(A) by the end of Jan 2019.

To note:

Students who accepted ITE EAE offers and met the Minimum Entry Requirements (MERs) when the GCE N-Level examination results are released, your offer will be automatically confirmed.

Students will not be able to participate in other admissions exercises except Sec 4N(A) students who are eligible for DPP (may participate in JIE 'H') or eligible for PFP (may apply online in Jan 2019).

Students who did not meet the MERs will take part in JIE.
